PRINCIPAL REPORT

WHAT I LOVED ABOUT THIS WEEK

After meeting with the school's P & C last week, it was great to see some new faces. Now that the meeting time has changed to 3.30pm, it seems that it fits in better with people's timetables. They are such a dedicated and hard working group of parents, who are madly working to make a success of the school's fair, which is happening later in the term. If you have ever considered helping out at school, now would be a good time to step up and offer assistance for the fair, it's a great way to make connections with other parents at the school and get involved. There is another meeting this term, Wednesday Week 7, to help finalise details for the fair. We would love to see you there.

ISSUES ARISING

As the school year has gotten underway, and we have definitely hit the ground running, teachers are using this time to get to know the students in their class. While this is an ongoing process there may be times when your child comes home with an issue that may have upset them and they were unable to communicate that with their teacher. Please feel free to make contact with your child's class teacher to make them aware of what is happening. The sooner we can resolve issues the better the outcome for everyone

SCHOOL CAMP

Whooohooo! Next week school camps will be happening. All money was due in this week, year 4,5,6 camp closed Tuesday and year 3 camp closed Wednesday. Money cannot be accepted after the close of dates. So mark out some time on your calendar this weekend to get all your camping gear organised. Parents please take some time to show your child how to put their tent up and pack it away properly and label all the clothing that is being sent (even their socks and underwear!!) It is really easy to return lost items if they are labelled.

MEET AND GREET

As I've been catching up with teachers over the week, it has been lovely to hear how happy they are with all the responses they have had to parent/teacher/student three way goal setting/ learning conversations. It creates such a positive start to the year for students when they know that their teacher and parents are keeping in touch, and supporting their learning. Thanks to all the parents who were able to make it. If you were unable to, please feel free to catch up with your child's class teacher at another time that is convenient for you. It could even be a phone call, to touch base, if that works better for you. The more connections we have between home and school the better the educational outcomes for your child.

Belinda Doyle (Relieving Principal)

On Monday 26th February, Stage 3 students will be going on a musical journey into the fascinating world of numbers with Mathy Matt and his digital assistant, Tekno the computer. The show will be performed in the school hall at 9:15am and will be of no cost.

Students will be entertained about the world of maths and will learn some cool maths tricks and problems that they can take home and share.

Derek Hauwert

Assistant Principal

Our school has a commitment to supporting our student's academically, socially and emotionally. We are proud to be a KidsMatter school and as part of this initiative all classes will be teaching the Bounce Back program. This term each class is focusing on "Core Values".

Year 1 and 2 will focus on that values make up a big part of who you are, your values are what you believe in and how you behave and act every day. Nobody is perfect but if you have good, strong values you can try and practice these and succeed in life. It is important to be honest, fair and responsible; tell the truth, don't cheat and take on roles sensibly and doing things for others. It is important to be kind, cooperative and recognise that being different is OK; treat others the way you would like to be treated, work respectfully and listen to others ideas, and be understanding of others abilities, beliefs and cultures. It is also important to be friendly and respect yourself and others; be kind and welcoming to all (even those you find it hard to like), don't let people walk over you or make you do the wrong thing and don't do this to others.

Ask your child what activities they've been doing in class to support our Bounce Back program.

EASTER EGGS

Later this term the P&C will be holding a giant Easter Egg Raffle. We are asking for donations of Easter Eggs to help out with prizes. If you can send in an Easter Egg or two we would appreciate your support. The donated eggs can be left at the community liaison/family support office within the front office.

Raffle tickets for our Major Fair Raffle can also be collected from the front office or canteen
